

Circle the correct verb (lie or lay), and rewrite each sentences using the correct form of lie or lay.

1. Jenny had (lie, lay) in the lounge chair for two hours before she finally fell asleep.

2. Because Alvin forgot his wristwatch, he (lie, lay) his cell phone next to his notebook during the test to keep track of time.

3. Throughout her troubled pregnancy, Jenny was (lie, lay) on her bed most of the time.

4. Throughout her troubled pregnancy, Jenny (lie, lay) on her bed most of the time.

5. My dog Marley likes to (lie, lay) under the mango tree during hot summer days.

6. "Be careful not to get the sink dirty when you (lie, lay) the flowerpot on the windowsill," Grandma shouted.

7. Ines's parents felt confident when she left for college because they had (lie, lay) a strong moral foundation for her to build on.

8. The workers were (lie, lay) concrete on the driveway when it started to rain.

9. During yesterday's storm, Emmett was (lie, lay) under the expressway overpass.

10. During yesterday's storm, Emmett (lie, lay) under the expressway overpass.

11. Every weekday afternoon Virginia (lie, lay) on the couch to watch Tyra.

12. Jacinto (lie, lay) his backpack on the kitchen table as soon as he gets home.

13. Sister O'Loughlin (lie, lay) down the rules about appropriate behavior in the dorms.

14. While James (lie, lay) asleep on the couch, the burglar stole his camera and jumped out the window.

15. The congregation (lie, lay) the offering at the foot of the altar.

16. Johan told me that he had (lie, lay) the box outside Ms. Farquar's office.

17. Jim stared at the caged python as it (lie, lay) in its cage quietly digesting the mouse for over two hours.
